COPYRIGHT DISCLOSURES AND FAIR USE COMMITMENT FOR COPIES OF ARCHITECTURAL PLANS

ARCHITECTURAL PLANS ARE SUBJECT TO COPYRIGHT PROTECTION UNDER STATE AND FEDERAL LAW. UNAUTHORIZED USE OF COPYRIGHTED MATERIAL MAY RESULT IN A VIOLATION OF FEDERAL LAW, 17 U.S.C. §501.

The City of Carpinteria provides copies of architectural plans that are submitted to the City in the course of the design review or land use approval process in order to comply with state disclosure laws. The city makes available copies of these architectural plans for the purposes of facilitating project review, public comment and news reporting consistent with the doctrine of fair use. Any further use or publication of architectural plans without the permission of the copyright owner may constitute an infringement of applicable copyright publications.

By signing below, the requesting party (1) acknowledges the existence of copyright protection for the architectural plans; (2) requests copies of plans recognizing that the use of such plans is limited by the copyright protection; and (3) represents that he or she does not intend to use the copies in any manner that would infringe on the copyright.
